Ball Fresh Preserving™ AWARD Ball Kerr

To qualify for any Jarden Home Brand Preservation Awards you must comply with the following guidelines.

JARDEN HOME BRAND
GENERAL JUDGING GUIDELINES:

1. All canned goods should follow the Ball® Blue Book Guide to Preserving, copyright 2011, Ball® Complete Book of Home Preserving, copyright 2006 and the USDA Complete Guide to Home Canning, Bulletin No. 539, reprint 2009. Information in these references may differ slightly. Each book is correct and safe. As the manufacturer of jars and closures, we recommend using our package instructions and the Ball® books listed above.
2. All eligible entries must be canned using the same brand of jar and lid: Ball® Jar sealed with a Ball® Lid and Band or Ball® Collection Elite™ Lid and Band, or canned in a Kerr® Jar sealed with a Kerr® Lid and Band, or a Ball® Collection Elite™ Lid and Band.
3. Entries in the general Soft Spreads Category must be prepared using one of the Ball® Pectin: Original, No Sugar Needed, or Liquid. THE UPC FROM THE BALL® PECTIN PACKAGE MUST BE ATTACHED TO THE JAR AS PROOF OF PURCHASE.
4. Entries must be labeled with Product Name, Date Canned, Altitude, Hot or Cold Pack, Time Processed and Method of Processing.

5. All home canned foods must have been prepared within a one-year period prior to judging date. These items should be labeled and ready to be judged when you arrive at the fairgrounds for check-in.

Quality Criteria:

1. FILLED JAR

Headspace--Headspace must correspond to instructions on the jar and lid packaging or the reference guides listed. The top of the finished recipe or liquid covering produce should provide adequate headspace as stated in approved guidelines.

Air Bubbles--air bubbles must be kept to a minimum. Gas bubbles denote spoilage; they are identified by movement of bubbles to the surface of the product while the jar is stationary. Any entry exhibiting spoilage of any type will be disqualified.

Bands--Bands should be in place for transporting home canned products; however, bands may be removed when presented for judging. This will aid in determining head space. The bands will be replaced for display.

2. HEAT PROCESS

Methods--used to heat process foods must comply with current preserving guidelines as stated in the approved reference guides. The boiling-water process for acid foods and steam-pressure process for low-acid foods are the only recommended methods to preserve food for shelf storage.

Times--for heat processing preserved foods correctly vary depending on each specific recipe or food type. Processing times must be in agreement with those listed in the approved guides.

3. PRODUCT APPEARANCE

Produce--should be free from blemishes, disease and spoilage. Recipes prepared with stems, pits, and peels are acceptable if the recipe is in keeping with all other preserving guidelines.

Liquids--must be clear and free from cloudiness and small particles unless recipe ingredients have a natural affect on product clarity.

Color--of the finished product should be as close as possible to its natural characteristics or that for cooked product.

Texture--is affected by heat processing; however, the finished product should not appear over-cooked or easily break down.

Ingredients--should retain its shape and size based on the type and preparation method. Cut pieces, of uniform size, should be packed evenly in the jar yet allow adequate room for liquid to circulate throughout the jar.

Safety is of the utmost importance. Any entry exhibiting spoilage or not in compliance with judging guidelines will be disqualified. Quality criteria are based on visual judging only.
